Right to Appeal:

An appeal to the Strasburg Town Council may be taken, as per Strasburg Town Code Section 38-111:

From any adverse holding of the town council at a hearing provided for in this article, the owner or occupant requesting such hearing shall have a right to review thereof by the circuit court of the county, which appeal must be taken within ten (10) days following such hearing, by written petition, setting forth in particular the basis therefor, filed in the court clerk's office, and a copy thereof shall be served upon the town manager. The matter may then be heard by the judge of such court upon its merits, without further formal pleadings.
