HELLO! My name is Waverly Coggsdale, and I would like to take this opportunity to introduce myself as the new Strasburg Town Manager. I greatly appreciate the confidence granted to me by Mayor Boies and the Strasburg Town Council to fill this leadership position. Since my first day on August 16th, I have been getting to know staff and members of the community and the many wonderful opportunities that exist in this great "small town"!

My wife is a third-grade teacher at W.W. Robinson Elementary School in Woodstock. We have three sons, John (24), a Virginia Tech graduate pursuing a master's at James Madison University; Ethan (22), a Wingate University graduate, currently employed by Resource Environmental Solutions (Raleigh, NC); and Peyton (20), a senior at James Madison University. Our family dog, Harper, is looking forward to the dog park and trails in town. Our family loves the beauty of the Shenandoah Valley and looks forward to calling Strasburg home.

I encourage citizens to give me a call or stop by Town Hall to talk about any issues that may be on their mind. See you around Town!

DEDICATION OF HISTORICAL HIGHWAY MARKER

The small community of Fishers Hill will soon have a new highway marker placed along Route 601 (Battlefield Road) to commemorate three women who achieved national prominence for their creative endeavors, but were later largely forgotten. Those being honored on this marker include landscape painter Bertha Von Hillern (ca. 1857-1939), once renowned as a competitive endurance walker, who shared a studio with painter Maria J. C. a' Becket (1839-1904). Emma Howard Wight (ca. 1863-1935) arrived in the Fishers Hill area late in the 1880's and became a prolific author of novels, short stories, plays, radio dramas, and photoplays.

Plan to attend the dedication of this Historical Highway Marker commemorating these three women.

Sunday, October 3, 2021
1:30 p.m.
Strasburg Town Square
(216 E. King Street, beside Strasburg Town Hall)
